2nd Quarter, 2022

Martin Enterprises

April — June

CLFS, PSR, DAY SUPPORT, AND INNOVATIONS

This quarter, CLFS, PSR, Day Support, and Innovations groups were busy volunteering with Meals on Wheels and the Williamston Community Garden. The groups also had fun completing wellness, cooking, and shopping goals, just to name a few. Arts and crafts were made by the clients for Mother's Day, Memorial Day, Easter, and Father's Day. Weekly trips to the library gave clients the opportunity to check out some really interesting books and meet Smokey The Bear. The groups also enjoyed a day at the Sylvan Heights Bird Park in Scotland Neck where they were able to see many varieties of birds and were actually able to feed some of them as they perched on their hands. The clients and staff are looking forward to even more fun next quarter.

ARC and UCP group homes had an interesting and enjoyable 2nd quarter. In addition to welcoming new staff and a new resident, the group home residents were busy staying physically active by dancing, walking, bowling, learning the hula hoop, enjoying the park, and playing outdoor games like kick ball, catch, and horse shoes. The residents also played Bingo and the safety pin game, made flower pots into Easter Bunnies, added windmills and flowers to the garden, decorated for Memorial Day, watched movies, practiced safety drills, attended birthday celebrations, and called family and friends. The group home residents were also able to attend the Differently Abled Fun Fair, courtesy of the Koinonia Church in Greenville and a Jamboree in Washington, where they enjoyed socializing, a “pig pickin”, and dancing. The residents are eager to start the next quarter as we get closer to the fall and winter holidays.
