Hope for Success

Vocational Rehabilitation Services

The Vocational Rehabilitation department continues moving forward through the BEAM transition. Since the beginning of the fiscal year one (1) placement has been made and we are looking forward to ongoing success throughout the year. As motivation to remain positive during the training process, the VR In-House consumers Worker of the Month and Perfect Attendance awards are granted to those who meet the criteria of quality performance, attendance, behavior, and production, ability to stay on task, team work, and dedication. The consumer is awarded a paid meal card, Worker of the Month certificate and 50 tokens to use in the Reward Gallery as an incentive towards his/her hard work and dedication.

Supported Employment - one (1) consumer participated in the quarterly Success Club meeting. Each quarter, CES show appreciation to the consumers through the Success outing. This quarter the outing was held in Greenville at the Greenville Mall. Lunch immediately followed at Cookout. The consumer utilized the time to shop for his parents for Christmas. The consumer informed the CES that he now drives alone and is proud of his accomplishment.

...HOLIDAY FUN...

PsychoSocial Rehabilitation Program

The PSR department had lots of fun this quarter. In the month of October they made several crafts pertaining to Halloween. They made a festive tree with autumn leaves containing words that would help them with their reading. They watched movies and participated in a harvest festival.

In November, the consumers went on an outing to Greenville. They visited the newly opened business "Burlington Coat Factory"; had lunch at Hibachis, and ended the outing by visiting Carmike Cinema and watching a movie. Consumers made various crafts pertaining to Thanksgiving and were given the opportunity to express how thankful they were. They also participated in an ice cream social given by one of the consumers.

The month of December was very busy and was the most exciting month of the quarter. PSR made crafts pertaining to Christmas and decorated the tree with snowflakes and red birds. PSR and ADVP learned individual parts to "The 12 Days of Christmas" and performed for other consumers and staff during our "Week of Feast". Consumers participated in other activities such as playing Bingo for prizes and enjoying snacks sponsored by Mrs. Lisa Matthews. They also enjoyed a Christmas social sponsored by Pastor Renee Pearsall and The Miracle Moving Mission Church family, and a luncheon given by Martin Enterprises. Our department looks forward to the upcoming year and all the new things it will bring!

Adult Day Program

During this quarter, the Adult Day Program has had the pleasure of giving back to the community through new volunteer opportunities. We have recently added Faith Community Outreach food pantry in Robersonville as well as Bible Way food pantry of Williamston to our list of volunteer sites. Clients have enjoyed playing a part in serving those in need and have done an excellent job with completing every task that has been put before them. We look forward to adding more volunteer sites to our list and lending a helping hand to wherever it's needed in our community.

The clients also attended the Halloween Jamboree where they enjoyed games, dancing, music, prizes, and food. The clients made Get Well cards for a resident that was in the hospital.

November—The clients and staff visited several local churches for various programs during the month. Several residents were able to spend time with their families during the Thanksgiving holiday. The clients and staff also enjoyed a Thanksgiving feast at Golden Corral in Washington. The clients participated in different arts and crafts and decorated the Group Homes for the holidays.

December—The clients and staff attended the annual Christmas Parade in Williamston. There were bands, lots of floats, and of course, Jolly Ole Saint Nick! Clients and staff visited the 500,000 lights display in Windsor. The clients were fascinated with all the lights and enjoyed the outing. Clients and staff attended a Christmas Cantata entitled “Emmanuel” at Back Swamp Church. Families and friends of the clients were invited to attend the annual Christmas party at Martin Enterprises. The clients presented their skit “Go Tell It On the Mountain” to their families. Everyone enjoyed the food, fellowship, and door prizes.
